Notice of Medicare Provider Non-Coverage

Patient Name: _____ Medicare Number: _____
THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF YOUR CURRENT COVERAGE WILL END: _____.

- Your provider has determined that Medicare probably will not pay for your _____ services after the effective date listed above.
- You may have to pay for any of the _____ services you receive after the above date.

YOUR RIGHT TO APPEAL THIS DECISION

- You have the right to an immediate, independent medical review (appeal), while your services continue, of the decision to end Medicare coverage of these services.
- If you choose to appeal, the independent reviewer will ask for your opinion. The reviewer will also look at your medical records and/or other relevant information. You do not have to prepare anything in writing, but you have the right to do so if you wish.
- If you choose to appeal, you and the independent reviewer will each receive a copy of the detailed notice about why your coverage for services should not continue. You will receive this detailed notice only after you request an appeal.
- If you choose to appeal, and the independent reviewer agrees that service should no longer be covered after the effective date indicated above, Medicare will not pay for these services after that date.
- If you stop services no later than the effective date indicated above, you will avoid financial liability.

HOW TO ASK FOR AN IMMEDIATE APPEAL

- You must make your request to your Quality Improvement Organization (Also known as QIO). A QIO is the independent reviewer authorized by Medicare to review the decision to end these services.
- Your request for an immediate appeal should be made as soon as possible, but no later than noon of the day before the effective date indicated above.
- The QIO will notify you of its decision as soon as possible, generally by no later than two days after the effective date of this notice.
- To call your QIO to appeal or if you have any questions: Call PRONJ, The Healthcare Quality Improvement Organization, Inc. at 1-800-624-4557.
